Gavino Tafuya returned home Wednesday from the Espil & Prieto sheep ranch north of Flagstaff, where he was for several days assisting in shearing some 2,000 head of sheep for the above firm. He reports no rain to speak of in that part of the country.

James Byrom was up from the Aultman country a couple days this week visiting his family. Jim is handling a couple ranches down in the Verde country and was not backward in mentioning the fact that it was some warm down there this spring.

Mrs. M. F. Jones received a card Wednesday from her son, Noel Jones, who is with the 353rd Division, stating that he has safely reached the other side of the big pond. He left Flagstaff with the last contingent of men sent from the county and seems to have reached France in a remarkably short time.

Mrs. E. Ellinger, manager of the local Postal telegraph office, left yesterday for a month's vacation in California. Miss Margaret Young of Gallup will have charge of the office during her absence. This is Mrs. Ellinger's second vacation during her eleven year's residence in Flagstaff as manager of the Postal.

Mr. W. T. Treleven, general stock agent of the Santa Fe system, with headquarters at Kansas City, accompanied by Mr. A. C. McQueen, stock agent for the lines in Arizona, met Division Superintendent Tuttle in Flagstaff last Friday for a conference relative to movement of stock from the west this year.

Ralph Berry, the young spud king of the famous canyon country, was in Flagstaff this week. He has eighty-five acres of crop in this year, mostly potatoes and beans, with some acres of grain. Ralph was deferred some by the local board on account of his crops, but insists that he is ready and willing to go whenever he is called.

Mrs. Hugh Campbell left last Saturday evening for Philadelphia to meet her son, Danny, who is in the navy and who will touch that port for a few days and be given shore leave long enough for a good visit with his mother. The kind of letters a soldier or sailor boy is permitted to write are not so satisfactory as most mothers would like to have them.

Joe O'Riley, the famous insurance man of Albuquerque, was in Flagstaff the first of the week on his way east from an extended trip through the southern part of the state. Joe solemnly avers that winter has quit the sections of the country that he has been visiting. His trip was successful except for the incident at Ash Fork, when a burro nibbled his new straw hat.

"Shorty" Prather, the young man who normally gathers up sticks for the sawmills, was in Flagstaff this week advising with the doctors because, so he claims, he has not been able to carry an armful of logs over a half-mile without getting fatigued. They think he is suffering with an attack of grip.

Dr. Fronske, who has a habit of being around when the stork visits the different homes in this section of the mountains, thus becoming well acquainted with them, was made a present last Friday of a little boy—and being so well acquainted with the storks, they picked him out the very nicest one they could find.

At the regular meeting of the local Rebekah lodge on the evening of June 25th, Mrs. Christina Simmons, in behalf of the Williams Rebekah lodge, presented Mrs. Rosaline Clark, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Arizona, with a beautiful past noble guards collar as a token of their appreciation. Mrs. Clark has been one of the foremost workers of the Rebekahs in Arizona for over twenty years and well deserved the token.

Word was received here Saturday from Waco, Texas, of the death that day of Mrs. John Alexander, mother of Mrs. G. F. Manning, Sr. The deceased was 76 years old and the intense heat in that section is said to have been the cause of her sudden demise. Mrs. Alexander was well known to many in Flagstaff, having visited her daughter here at various times. Besides Mrs. Manning, several other sons and daughters are left behind.

FRANCIS D. CRABLE FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

Francis D. Crable has declared himself in on the race for county attorney this year and so far has no opposition at the primaries, with a good chance of his not having any.

Mr. Crable is a clever young lawyer who has built up a good legal practice in Flagstaff since coming here from Tombstone several years ago. He is a native Arizonan, but does not base his claim on that fact, but rather on his ability to give Coconino county a clean-cut administration of the laws as they are written, with favors to none and a square deal to all.

He does not believe in winning on promises, but promises to win and fulfill every promise that a good public official should make. There is no need of saying he is 100 per cent American, for being born in Arizona fully covers the ground in his case. He has made his way in life mainly by his own unaided efforts and energy and is willing to put the matter of his election squarely up to the people for their decision and is willing to abide by it.

He is well acquainted with the people of the county and the many interests of the county and his friends are confident that he will give the county splendid service.

WEEKLY KANSAS CITY STOCK MARKET REPORT

Kansas City Stock Yards, July 1—Cattle receipts today were 12,000, a decrease of 7,000 from same day last year, market strong to 10 higher, nothing prime offered, top $17.75.

Hogs today 8,000, a light run for Monday, market strong to 5 higher, top $16.70. Sheep and lambs today 6,000, market steady, spring lambs $17.75.

Beef Cattle Market Advance. The market advanced 50 to 75 cents last week on light receipts, and closed with prime steers worth up to $18.75, though nothing in that class arrived after Wednesday, when the top was $18. The best here today sold at $17.75. Kansas pasture steers are beginning to move, some good ones today at $16.85 to $17, and some in this class to feeder buyers at $16. Oklahoma sent a big delegation today, sales up to $14.75; this price paid for ten cars from Okmulgee, weighing 1,120 pounds. Fifty cars arrived in the Quarantine division, including 24 cars direct to packers, from Oklahoma City, balance mostly common mixed stock, steers at $8.50 to $12. Oregon sent 24 loads for today, rather thin fleshed, most of them at $12. Heavy native cows sold up to $13.50, grass cows $10.50, veals $14.75.

Stocker and Feeder Prices Good. Shipments out last week were up to the limit of the offerings, cooler weather, rains and strong beef cattle markets combining to stimulate trade. Sales are higher today, stock steers at $7.50 to $12.50, feeders mostly $11 to $13, exceptions up to $16.

Hogs Just Steady. The early market was steady, with packers inclined toward weakness, but all hands were soon compelled to mix in, on account of the light run, sales soon strong, and eventually 5 higher. Best heavyweight hogs at $16.70, medium weights same, lights $16.55, bulk of sales $16.45 to $16.65. The market has been unsatisfactory to owners, and not calculated to draw out heavy supplies, although local prices are showing the usual margin above up-river markets. Stock pigs sell at $16 to $16.50.

Sheep and Lamb Prices Steady. Dry weather caused native lambs to shrink in weight the last two weeks, and the recent heavy decline is partly due to that, although buyers say they are going to put lambs down around 15 cents a pound before they quit. Prices are steady today, native spring lambs at $17.50 to $17.75. Ewes bring up to $13, choice young breeding ewes worth $17. Goats are weak, a good many here today, sales of Angoras at $8.25, to killers and also to country buyers.

J. A. RICKART, Market Correspondent.

Mrs. William Goswick of the Verde is visiting in town, the guest of Mrs. Walter Martin.

Claude Black, the young cattleman, arrived in town Wednesday from his headquarters south of here.

Frank Sufea has accepted a position with the night force at the White House cafe.

Monty Montgomery, rancher of Mahan Park, fifty miles south of Flagstaff, is spending the week in town.

Nathan Bankhead, well known sheepman of the Grand Canyon section, was in town several days this week.

"Bill" Norton, cowpuncher of the old-time brand, who is in the employ of I. M. Jackson in the Grand Canyon section, is a visitor in town this week.

Col. S. B. Gilliland returned Wednesday evening from Soldiers' Home, California, and will make Flagstaff his home from now on. He says the old soldiers over there are very much pleased with the recent increase in their pension pay. Barney Williams, one of the "early days" boys in this section of Arizona, is still at the home and sends a big gathering of good wishes to his old friends here.

Indian Band a Young One. In an interview with Robert R. Lewis, director of the band, he stated: "Our Indian boys have only been organized for nine months, some of whom did not know anything about music at that time, and our band is only in its infancy, and we hope that our appearance in Flagstaff will be numbered, as we not only wish to show the rapid progress made, but glad to render good selections to your music-loving citizens."

"When this cruel war is over," said a soldier, "I'll eat corn pone just for fun."

Mrs. John Garrett left Monday for Los Angeles to visit her two daughters, who are attending school in that city.

Hugh Campbell, Jr., and J. E. Kiesel left the first of the week for Los Angeles to take the physical examination for the U. S. navy.

Trainload after trainload of soldiers went through Flagstaff Tuesday on their way east. It would seem that Uncle Samuel has been thoroughly aroused and would make good his promise to have a million and a half men over there by August.

According to the Jerome Verde Copper News, J. F. McDonald of Bisbee has declined to accept Governor Hunt's appointment to represent Coconino county on the State Council of Defense.

Earl Hawley of Phoenix has been appointed a purchasing agent for the Red Cross, with headquarters at Washington. His duties are to purchase hospital and dental supplies. For several years he has been with a Chicago surgical instrument company.

Jack Robinson, who has been looking after his stock interests near Cornville, arrived in Flagstaff Wednesday, having made the trip by horseback. Jack received a kick from a horse in March which came near laying him out for good and has not yet fully recovered from the accident. He will spend the remainder of the summer in this section.

Big Stock of Hardware Sacrificed for Quick Selling

The administrator of the W. F. Jagger estate has decreed that the hardware stock of the Flagstaff Mercantile Company must be reduced at once.

We are offering to the public a very complete line of shelf hardware, builders' hardware, stoves and ranges, household and kitchen utensils, guns and ammunition, bicycles and baby carriages, beds and mattresses, carpenter tools, farming implements and harvesting machinery, and many other useful things carried in a first-class hardware stock at prices ranging in reduction from 10 to 20 per cent.

This reduction is given at a time when this class of merchandise is greatly in demand, and regardless of the fact that wholesale prices are constantly increasing.

Visit our store and inspect the stock. Make your purchases now for future use for the prices are bound to increase.

This reduction sale will continue for a short time only. All sales strictly cash.
